...A LITTLE BET

Da quando organizziamo concorsi ippici abbiamo sempre sperato di poter ospitare un evento di rilevanza europea.

Il primo test è stato l'inverno scorso con la FINALE EUROPEA DEL MASTER DEL CAVALLO IBERICO.

Un nostro caro amico ci ha proposto di raccogliere la sfida di ospitare il Campionato Europeo a Squadre ed Individuale di Mounted Games e siamo stati felici di dare del nostro meglio.

Siamo pronti per ospitare ponies, cavalieri, supporters e squadre presso le nostre strutture, nella speranza di regalarvi un'esperienza piena di emozioni, in una zona d'Italia ricca di storia, cultura e svago.

Abbiamo preparato per voi cinque giorni di sport, divertimento, scambio e condivisione sperando di costruire un'amicizia oltre al concorso.

Benvenuti in Italia, benvenuti all'Horsebridge e che vincano i migliori!

Federico Orso Restivo

Ever since we started organizing horse shows we always hoped to host a European Event.

The first test was the European Final of Iberic Horse Master last winter.

A dear friend of ours proposed us to take on the challenge of hosting the European Team and Individual Mounted Games Championships and we were happy of giving and doing our best.

We are now ready to host ponies, riders, supporters and teams in our facilities hoping to give you an experience full of emotions in an area of Italy rich in history, culture and leisure.

We prepared for you all five days of sport, fun and sharing, hoping to build a friendship beyond the show.

Welcome to Italy, welcome to the Horsebridge Club and may the best Win!

Federico Orso Restivo

THE SURROUNDING AREA

TURIN

Turin is well known as the home of the Shroud of Turin, the football teams Juventus F.C. and Torino F.C., the headquarters of automobile manufacturers FIAT, Lancia and Alfa Romeo, and as host of the 2006 Winter Olympics. Several International Space Station modules, such as Harmony and Columbus, were also manufactured in Turin. It was the capital of the Duchy of Savoy from 1563, then of the Kingdom of Sardinia ruled by the Royal House of Savoy and finally the first capital of the unified Italy. It is often referred to as "the Capital of the Alps". Turin is also known as "the Automobile Capital of Italy" or the Detroit of Italy; in Italy it is also called "[La] capitale Sabauda".

STUPINIGI

The Palazzina di caccia of Stupinigi (Italian: "The hunting residence of Stupinigi") is one of the Residences of the Royal House of Savoy in northern Italy, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites list. Built as a royal hunting lodge in the early 18th century, it is located in Stupinigi, a suburb of the town of Nichelino, 10 km (6 mi) southwest of Turin.

The hunting park that belonged to a branch of the House of Savoia was given to Emmanuel Philibert, Duke of Savoy in 1563, when he moved the capital of the duke from Chambéry to Turin.

VENARIA REALE

The Palace of Venaria (Italian: Reggia di Venaria Reale) is a former royal residence located in Venaria Reale, near Turin, in Piedmont, northern Italy. It is one of the Residences of the Royal House of Savoy, included in the UNESCO Heritage List in 1997, and one of the largest royal residences in the world, comparable in size and structures to those of Versailles and Caserta (though the latter's park is far larger). The original gardens of the residence are now totally disappeared, since French troops turned them into training grounds. Earlier drawings show an Italian garden with three terraces connected by elaborate stairways and architectural features such as a clock tower in the first court, the fountain of Hercules, a theater and parterres. Recent works have recreated a park in modern style, exhibiting modern works by Giuseppe Penone, including a fake 12 m-high cedar housing the thermic discharges of the palace.

OLYMPIC SITES

The 2006 Winter Olympics, officially known as the XX Olympic Winter Games was celebrated in Turin from February 10, 2006, through February 26, 2006. Many venues were located in the Olympic District in central Turin, including: Oval Lingotto – Speed skating, Torino Esposizioni – Ice hockey, Palasport Olimpico – Ice hockey (final), Stadio Olimpico – Opening and closing ceremonies, Palavela – Figure skating, short-track speed skating, Olympic Village.

and some other venues: Bardonecchia – Snowboarding, Cesana Pariol – Bobsleigh, Luge, Skeleton, Cesana San Sicario – Biathlon, Pinerolo – Curling, Pragelato – Nordic combined (ski jumping), Ski jumping, Pragelato Plan – Cross-country skiing, Nordic combined (cross-country skiing), San Sicario Fraiteve – Alpine skiing (women's combined (downhill), downhill, and super-g), Sauze d'Oulx – Freestyle skiing, Sestriere Borgata – Alpine skiing (men's combined (downhill), downhill, super-g), Sestriere Colle – Alpine skiing (combined (slalom), giant slalom, slalom)

THE COMPETITION

The European Team Championship 2012

Age groups: U12, U14, U17 & Open

The team championships will be run under the traditional format of previous years. The competition will run from Thursday 2nd to Sunday 5th August. Age groups with 7 or fewer teams will contest 6 sessions of games with cumulative points. Age groups with more than 7 teams will compete in 4 qualifying sessions followed by 2 finals.

Number of teams in finals:

We will be running in a seven lane arena, we propose that in every age group there be a minimum of 3 teams in the B-Final.

Scenario A:

Class with 8 countries.

5 Teams in the A-Final and 3 Teams in the B-Final. Otherwise we would be left with the Scenario where teams would compete over 4 qualifying heats and 7 out of 8 teams with contest the A-Final and 1 team would be left with no final.
